

I am from the UK, taking a sabbatical from teaching. I love crafts, meeting people, and walking with my lively Springer Spaniel Daisy.

This is my first time living in the US and I am really looking forward to contributing to this great community.

